(U) Davis – Investigation Underway After Antisemitic Banners Hung on Overpass

(U) UC Davis police are investigating after reports over the weekend of racist and antisemitic banners being hung across a bicycle overpass on campus. The incident happened on the Blue Ridge Road Bikeway and Highway 113 overpass. Police said that witnesses reported seeing three or four people standing on the overpass hanging signs with antisemitic messages. UC Davis police said the incident did not rise to the level of a hate crime, but it was “determined to be a hate incident of concern.”

(U) Arizona – Two Dead, Five Injured in Random Shooting

(U) Phoenix – Three people are dead, including the suspect, and two police officers are injured after a shooting broke out Sunday night in Phoenix, authorities said. In a news conference Monday morning, police said the suspect, who has not yet been identified, left a hotel and randomly began firing a weapon around 8:45 p.m. Sunday. Police said the suspect, who was wearing a "carrier-type" tactical vest and Kevlar helmet, also tried to throw a Molotov cocktail at the hotel at some point. Officers were called to the area and immediately came under fire, Phoenix Police Chief Jeri Williams said. The officers responded by shooting back as the suspect retreated. The suspect was later found dead, Williams said.

(U) Israel – Israeli Defense Force, Police Bust Gun Smuggling Ring

(U) Jerusalem – Israeli security forces busted a gun-smuggling network along the Jordanian border last weekend, arresting its leader and several members, and seizing ten handguns, law enforcement officials said Sunday. According to the Israel Defense Forces (IDF), the arrests came amid a “significant rise” in attempts to smuggle weapons and drugs into the country from Jordan and Egypt. Since the beginning of the year, some 300 guns and 2,150-kilograms of various drugs have been seized along the Jordanian and Egyptian borders, the IDF said.
